The Editors are pleased to announce that the winner of the 2010 David Solomons Prize are:

Margaret A. Abernethy, Jan Bouwens and Laurence van Lent for their paper “Leadership and control system design” which appeared in volume 21 (1) pp. 2-16.

The prize, which is £1,000, is sponsored by the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and is named in recognition of Professor David Solomons’ extensive contributions to management accounting research over many years. It was inaugurated in 2001 and is awarded to the best paper in the annual volume of Management Accounting Research. The winning paper is selected by the Editors following consultation with the Editorial Board.

The Editors believe that this prize-winning paper makes an important contribution to the field of management accounting research.

Congratulations to the winners.

Michael Bromwich and Robert W. Scapens
